
Toastmasters Meeting Notes for 6-10-13

Yesterday's meeting supplied good times, great speeches and some funny moments.

Sonja's speech "The Ultimate Gift" was a great call to action to remember that each day is a gift. Christina explained how the One Story concept is used out in the missionary field. Autumn told us how Milli Q was a source of guidance and strength in her life. The speeches were excellent and very compelling.

Everyone take a good look at Sara. She won't be here next week or 2 weeks in July!

The group was amused to hear Shelley stand up and proclaim to be a delicious pineapple that wanted to sit on Fred's table. Not pictured are the guards that escorted her out of the building for crazy talk.

I think Isaiah was trying to hide from my camera so I'm putting him in the notes twice!

Athena was the Toastmaster and made the theme of the day 'Hawaii'. She brought leis and pictures of flowers to set the mood.

Another full house. We were still missing a few people though. It would be great to have everyone there. Here's the schedule for next week:
