

Toastmasters Meeting 6-3-13

Another Toastmaster meeting another day of fantastic speeches.

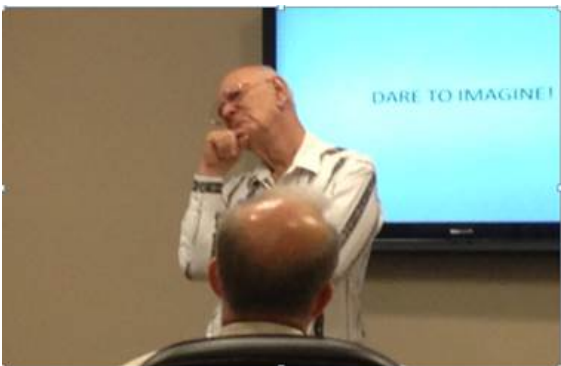

Griselle dared us to imagine. She had such captivating pictures in her speech that I completely forgot about my job as timekeeper. Well done Griselle! By the way, Mike Lott proved he's the toughest dude in the room. You know your tough when you can bring in a pink cup!

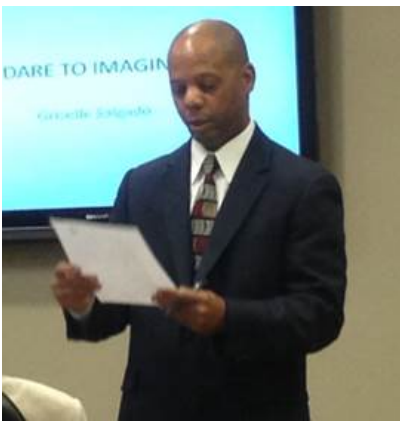

In her second speech, Cassie really did a great job telling us how we can get unstuck in our lives.

Curtis gave an awesome speech about a pair turkeys that found themselves in America after hitching a ride on the Nina. He also unveiled his rapper pose to the group. Watch out Jay-Z!

I'm glad we don't have to vote for best dressed. Some things just can't be done.

We had a full room today. 21 people!

Hope to see everyone next week!
